New City Budget Is Studied

Preliminary discussion on the city's new budget was started by the City Council at its meeting Tuesday night.

The total proposed budget amounts to $777,860, compared with a budget of approximately $550,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30.

The new figure, however, includes $93,000 for the construction of the swimming pool and approximately $95,000 for work on city streets. Money from neither of these items comes from the tax levy by the city.

THE SWIMMING pool is being financed by the sales tax and streets improvements funds will come from state and county gas taxes.

The City Council will meet again at 7:30 p.m. Monday to explore the budget, which should be ready for adoption at the last meeting in June.

In other action, the Council deferred for further study a request from the City Employees Association for health benefits. In a letter to the Council, the association requested:

1. Coverage by Blue Shield.
2. Accumulative sick leave of 30 to 60 days.

3. Leave in cases of extreme emergency for any members of the immediate family living under the same roof, subject to the approval of the city administrator.

4. Seven to 11 holidays a year, including like holidays for members of the Police Department or compensating pay.

THE COUNCIL also tabled a request for the transfer of a beer license from the Sierra Cafe to Roland M. Brandt and Lawrence A. Twedell. The latter two have bought the cafe and will change its name to Rock & Larry's Sierra Club. The Council asked for a written report from the police chief before the transfer is granted.

Civic Group
To Hold Season's
Finale Monday

"Some of the Things Which Make Sierra Madre Such a Friendly Town" will be discussed by Mayor Charles James before the Sierra Madre Civic Service Group at its final meeting of the season next Monday evening in the Woman's Clubhouse.

Also on the program will be the city's new recreation director, Hartley B. Greene. Mr. Greene will discuss Sierra Madre's summer recreation program for teenagers, including the operation of the city pool soon to be opened.

The meeting will be called to order at 6:30 o'clock by President "Pat" Beutler. Among the new members of the group are Raymond Ohs, Graham Patterson, Ed Nellisen, Clay Reavis and Hugh Worden. Emile Smith is program chairman.

LOCAL ARREST

John E. Morris, 51, of 655 Brookside Lane, appears tomorrow in Pasadena Municipal Court on drunk driving charges.

A MAKESHIFT splash party is being enjoyed by these youngsters who are playing in a water table made by fathers of children in the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School. As the story elsewhere on this page points out, the nursery's summer school will start Monday. Children in the photo are Gusty Hawkins, Andy Carr, Sheila Smith, Lisa McCoy, Mary Alice Colvin and Tommy Ames.

Ancient Issue Arises
In Annexation Plans

By MARJORIE PARKER

(This is the first of a series of articles on the problems inherent in the possible combining of the Sierra Madre and Pasadena Elementary School Districts. Arguments in favor of annexation will appear next week, while those opposing the move will be run the week of June 27.)

An old hat was taken off the shelf last week by a Pasadena paper and an attempt made to refurbish it for summer fussing.

A Sunday column of a neighboring daily stated that "rumblings of a new controversy that may equal the Nativist Play issue are being heard in Sierra Madre today as townfolk consider the proposal of John Dewar, 154 Santa Anita Ct., to annex the Sierra Madre Elementary School District to the Pasadena Elementary School District."

The article concludes that "the idea has been building up as an issue for some time but efforts have been made to keep the public in the dark about the discussions and the studies."

MR. DEWAR, on whom the hat was tried for size, said: "No, the idea of unification is not a new one. No, I am not a trouble maker, trying to stir up 'controversy.'"

"During the past year," he went on, "I did research on our possible annexation to the Pasadena system. I brought my information before the School Board last year and met with members in study committee for discussion. Our last meetings came at the time the Board was searching for a new superintendent and when members discouraged me I decided I would not bring it up again until I had developed my facts further. When I have done that, I would like to bring it before the people through the columns of The Sierra Madre News."

(Mr. Dewar's presentation of facts and figures on possible annexation will appear next week in The News.)

Family Fiesta
Planned by Retreatants

Improved fiesta grounds will be readied in time for the annual Family Fiesta sponsored by the Mater Dolorosa Laymen's Retreat on June 30 at the retreat house in Sierra Madre. It was announced by Very Rev. James Patrick White, C.P., rector.

The dining area will be located adjacent to the Fiesta midway on an expansive lawn sheltered by awning, providing capacity for serving 1,000 persons at one sitting. It will include a temporary kitchen.

A barbecued beef dinner will be served from noon until 6 p.m.

Partially surrounding the area will be a concrete block wall. In an olive grove on a slightly higher level will be the entertainment section in a garden setting.

Bus service will be provided from the parking lot to the dining and fiesta grounds.

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the first closed retreat for laymen conducted by the Passionist Fathers at Mater Dolorosa.

Community Breakfast
Draws 1,000 Guests

Nearly 1,000 meals were served at the Community Breakfast last Saturday in the Park House, according to Larry Bevington, chairman of the arrangements committee.

Sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, in cooperation with the Search and Rescue Squad, the breakfast attracted a large and hungry crowd despite the cloudy, cool weather.

"MANY outstanding compliments were received," Mr. Bevington said, "on the quality of the food and on the ability, heretofore unstung, of the Kiwanians-turned-cooks."

All food served at the breakfast, with the exception of the sausages, was donated by the manufacturers through the cooperation of Harold Roberts, Gail Griffin and Clair Pesek of Roberts and Market. The City of Sierra Madre and the Southern Counties Gas Co. also assisted by providing equipment.

Every member of the local Kiwanis Club, in addition to some former members, attended, Club President Larry Lomax said.

"To those with experience in other group activities, this 100 per cent participation by all members may seem unbelievable," said Mr. Lomax. "But it happened."

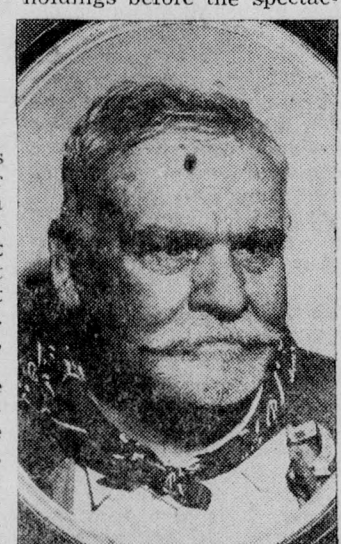

VFW Auxiliary will give a pot luck supper, Sunday, starting at 8 p.m. at the hall.

Rites End
Fabled Era

Percy Bonebrake died Sunday, funeral services were held Tuesday—and one of the last links with a fabled era of California was cut.

Los Angeles, where he was born in 1878, had a population of 10,000 and the Bonebrake boy hunted rabbits in what is now Pershing Square and tracked deer in the Eagle Rock section.

He was the son of Maj. George H. Bonebrake, a banker who had vast landholdings before the spectacular boom-and-bust troubles of Southern California in the late 1890's and early 1900's.

"I USED TO BOAST," Mr. Bonebrake once said, "that I could ride horseback from Los Angeles to San Diego or to San Bernardino and sleep on my father's land each night. But if I rode to Santa Barbara I had to sleep in the street car barns with the mules. That was the only thing that my father owned there."

As a young man he was cowboy, cattle buyer and peace officer in California, Arizona and Texas. Finally he settled down to become ranch superintendent for Anita Baldwin in the flamboyant days when Baldwin livestock took honors across the country and her home, a stone's throw from Sierra Madre, was known as one of the finest stock ranches in the world.

Mr. Bonebrake was in charge of buying, selling and breeding world-famous Percherons, Arabians and other stock. He once paid $41,000 for a 9-month-old bull at public auction.

He managed the showing of stock at county fairs and livestock shows and maintained 155 men to show the great six-horse teams with tasseled Scotch collars and braided tails. He always added that he kept one man to keep the 155 men in spotless white uniforms.

With him through most of his colorful life until her death in 1952 was his wife, Effie, known and loved as "Cricket." Born an Arguello, she was a member of one of the great families of California's Spanish days.

TOGETHER they settled in Sierra Madre in 1923 at 180 Santa Anita Court. He was a member of the Monrovia Elks Lodge and of the Westerners.

Living with him at the time of his death was his daughter, Mrs. Emma Bonebrake Smith. He is also survived by five grandchildren, Raymond Cresswell, Woodland; Frank Cresswell Jr., Bell Gardens; Norman Punter, Anaheim; Mrs. Dolores McDaniel, Rivera, and Mrs. Carlucci McDonald, South Gate.

Rev. George W. Lindsay officiated at Tuesday's services at Ripple Chapel. Committal was at Pasadena Mausoleum.

Local Family
Of Five Hurt
In Car Crash

Five members of a Sierra Madre family were injured Monday night in an auto accident on Santa Anita Ave. in Arcadia.

Robert L. Thompson, 33, of 245 W. Laurel, his wife, Cynthia, and the couple's three young children were riding in the car driven by John J. Archer, 3939 Waterbury St., Covina, when the collision occurred.

Mr. Thompson was treated at Methodist Hospital in Arcadia and released. His wife, who suffered a head cut, and two of the children, Judy, 4, and Stephany, 7 months, were also released after treatment.

The third child, Robert, 3, was treated and then taken to St. Luke Hospital in Pasadena for examination for a possible head injury.

Mr. Archer, a real estate agent who was showing houses to the Thompsons, was taken to a Covina Hospital.

The accident happened when Archer's car collided with the auto driven by Milton S. Hanson, 44, of 4810 S. Vincent Ave., Covina.

Ida M. Plumb,
14-Year Resident,
Succumbs

Funeral services for Ida May Plumb, 301 N. Baldwin, were held last Monday in the Ripple Mortuary Chapel, with the Rev. George W. Lindsay officiating.

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Miss Plumb was a resident of Sierra Madre the past 14 years. She died June 6.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mabel P. Stone, Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Jessie Trislar, North Hollywood. Interment was in Live Oak Memorial Park.

880 Go to Polls Here
In Record Turnout

Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch and Pasadena voters gave a better than two-to-one victory Friday to three candidates seeking seats on the Board of Education—Mrs. Lu Verne LaMotte, Steve Salisian and Walter Shatford. The three formed the "slate" of the Citizens Supporting Good Education.

A total of 880 Sierra Madre voters went to the polls to record a 17.79 per cent turnout of 4,946 registered voters. In the whole area, 30,066 citizens balloted, the largest number to vote in School Board election history here.

The total vote for Mrs. LaMotte was 20,994; for Salisian, 19,968, and for Shatford, 19,363.

THE DEFEATED "slate" polled as follows: Malcolm Meguar, 9,170; John Poole, 9,035, and Don Winton, 8,133. Others in the race were Laurel McElwain, who polled 906 votes; James Sibbet, 822, and Miss Mabel Fossler, 745.

Percentage-wise, 26.6 per cent of eligible voters cast their ballots. In the Hastings area, however, the three winners defeated their opponents four to one, with about 40 per cent of those eligible voting.

Six precincts voting at Eugene Field gave Mrs. LaMotte 580, Salisian 554, and Shatford 547, compared to Fossler 11, McElwain 14, Meguar 156, Poole 132, Sibbet 13, and Winton 117.

FIVE PRECINCTS voting at Don Benito gave Mrs. La-

Motte 477, Salisian 471, Shatford 459, Miss Fossler 5, McElwain 10, Meguar 156, Poole 135, Sibbet 9, and Winton 136.

Mrs. LaMotte won the election in all of the district's 87 consolidated precincts, Salisian and Shatford each failed in two, Meguar and Poole were winners in two precincts each.

As for members of the CSGE, an organization of thousands of people throughout the district who worked hard for their chosen candidates, they were "very gratified with the results."

Said their chairman, Dr. Walter Rogers:

"One of our stated aims was to make public education a real community project. The problems of public education, however, are the same today as they were yesterday and their solution will continue to require the cooperative efforts of the School Board, the school administration and the public."

BUT THE SLATE opposing the winners, or at least some of their backers, continued to protest.

Several women led by Mrs. Joseph Stout, 285 Glen Summer Road, active in the campaign for Meguar, Poole and Winton, were taking to the County Grand Jury Schools Committee charges that teachers of the Pasadena Education Association used improper campaign tactics.

In a letter to the Grand Jury, Mrs. Stout charged that school paper and facilities were used, teachers assessed and pupils told to address cards and mail them to their parents, in support of the three winners.

Mrs. LaMotte, Salisian and Shatford are to take office July 1 or 2, replacing Lawrence Lamb, ultra-conservative chairman, and William Nicholas and Walter Young, who have taken the liberal view in school business.

The three newcomers will join Edgar Barratt, who has sided with Lamb in many Board arguments, and Robert Mardian, who has served somewhat as a balance wheel between the two factions since his appointment last year.

Return to Normalcy

A fresh breeze is blowing through the land, wafting away the cobwebs of reaction, intolerance and the know-nothingness that are the trademarks of McCarthyism.

Nowhere is this apparent trend more evident than in recent school board elections in Southern California.

In Los Angeles two seemingly entrenched Board of Education members, Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. Cole, were defeated, despite the support of at least three of the four metropolitan newspapers.

Both incumbents endorsed and insisted upon points of view that caused educators in other sections of the country to throw up their hands in despair. Both apparently are afflicted with a peculiar blindness that blots out the fact that the United Nations does indeed exist.

"Ah, well," many an educator remarked wryly during those trying times. "That's Southern California for you."

In Pasadena, candidates backed by the Citizens Supporting Good Education were elected by the largest turnout in the history of a local School Board election. Nearly 9000 Sierra Madreans, in fact, went to the polls to give their overwhelming endorsement to the CSGE candidates, Mrs. LaMotte, Mr. Shattford and Mr. Salisian.

These three do not believe in book burning, in character assassination or in holding a club over the heads of teachers. Mr. Lamb, who is retiring, and Mr. Barratt, who is not, are outnumbered.

Sierra Madre also has an excellent Board of Education, one that was strengthened by the recent election of Hugh Colvin. Our Board here, it's safe to say, believes first and last in the maintenance of good education, the best that can be had with the money and facilities at hand.

Only five short years ago the defeat of Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Stafford, the election of the CSGE-supported candidates, and even probably the voter endorsement of Mr. Colvin would not have been possible.

The Communist issue would have been plucked from the air; the guilt by association rumors would have been released.

And, more often than not, the tar would have stuck. Mud baths were prepared in these recent elections, too, but the brush was used hesitantly, with trepidation. And it didn't work.

Southern California—as well as other parts of the nation—seems on the road back to true normalcy, not the so-called normalcy of the know-nothings who distrust new ideas, suspect intelligence and too often hide their fears behind the cloak of what they dare to call "Americanism."

For this we should all be grateful.—H.W.E.

Atomic Weapons Force Army to Change Tactics

By Edgar W. Hiestand, Rep., 21st District

What role will the Army footslogger play in the event of a pushbutton nuclear war?

Several colleagues and I put this question to Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker and top members of his staff last week at a breakfast meeting. We wanted to know whether an Army field force had been rendered obsolete by guided missiles, atomic artillery and radar-controlled bombers.

It hasn't, he explained, but these new weapons have caused revolutionary changes in the Army since World War II and Korea—even to the way soldiers are grouped.

Nuclear warfare means the Army has to avoid concentrating men and inviting the enemy's use of atomic weapons for mass death and destruction. An invasion of Normandy with massed troops would be unfeasible today. It could be destroyed before it ever reached the beach.

Besides being dispersed, today's Army must be able to regroup rapidly and deliver tremendous firepower upon a given point or series of points. This requires amazing mobility and flexibility of forces.

These factors have forced the Army to abandon its "triangle" concept of combat formations—three regiments to a division, three battalions to a regiment and three companies to a battalion—in favor of a "pentagonal," or five-sided concept, all on wheels, wings or parachutes, and all with terrific weapons.

This pentagonal formation permits the wide dispersal that is essential before an attack, and yet troops may move together rapidly to assault a target. After a breakthrough, troops quickly disperse behind the enemy and complete the mop-up.

Infantry, artillery and armor units can give up or take on additional forces from this pentagon formation. The widespread use of helicopters for personnel and equipment, plus a communications setup that will allow each soldier to keep in contact by means of a radio receiver in his helmet, will be among the features of these new combat teams.

Each soldier can deliver many times the firepower of his World War II counterpart and his chances of survival have improved.

First to switch from the triangular to the pentagonal concept was the reactivated 101st Airborne Division at Fort Campbell, Ky. Other divisions are following, and the changeover is expected to be completed among all Army units within two years.

Strength of a converted airborne division will be only 11,386 men, as compared to 17,085 in the past. Infantry divisions are being reduced to 13,478 from the previous 17,460, and armored divisions to 14,617 from 14,670.

Although the cost per man has increased considerably, the reduction in total strength proves that we can have a far better defense for only slightly more money. The key is greater utilization of each man.

ONE of the brighter sides of Washington life is the annual baseball game between Republican and Democrat members of Congress. It's played for charity at Griffith Stadium, home of the Washington Senators, but all resemblance to the national pastime stops there.

Somehow the Democrats managed to break a two-year losing streak this time. They won, 10-9, after the GOP's blew an 8-run, first-inning lead. Infielders and pitchers respected the charity purpose of the contest, awarding lots of free trips to first. Any hit beyond the infield went for extra bases.

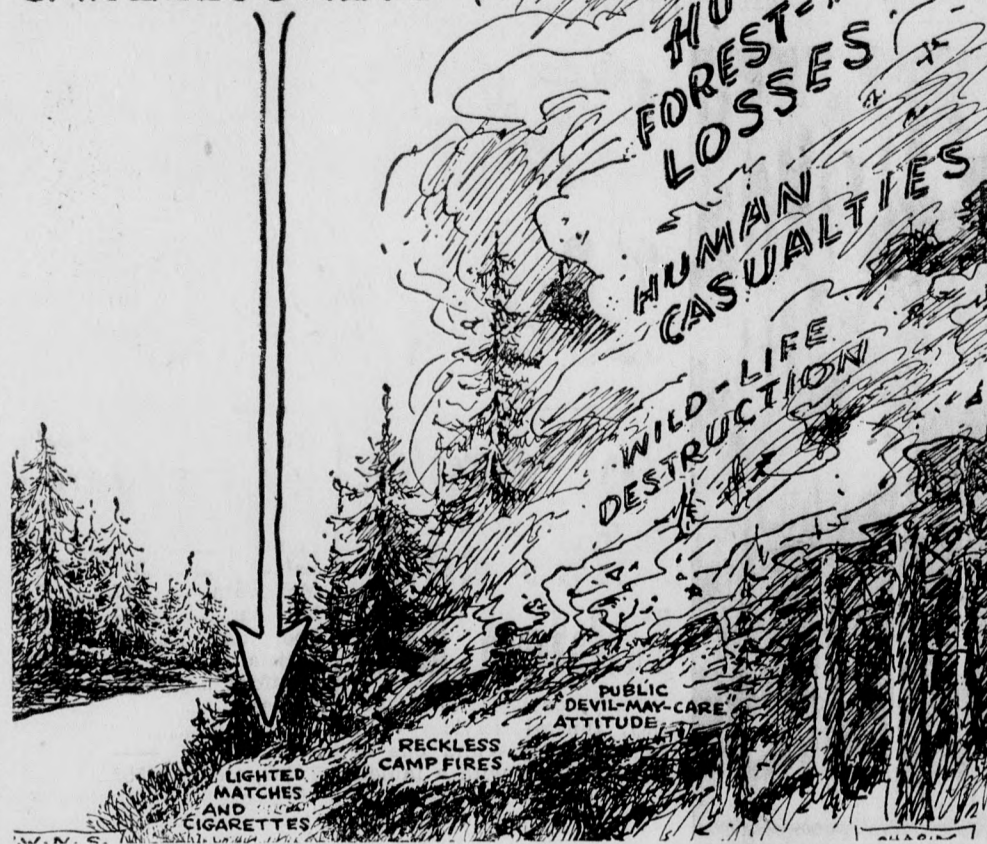

Ground rules included no filibustering over an umpire's decision, and no "duster" pitches to change the alignment in the House. But substitutions were unlimited. One man ran for two others in the same inning, then went to bat for himself.

Under such "liberal" rules the Democrats should have won. They boast of their so-called "liberal" members.

Most of the outs came on strikeouts. That figured. Congressmen are noted for batting the breeze. It was great fun, but if the players had been as unfamiliar with a ballot box as they were with a batter's box, they wouldn't have been eligible to play in the first place.

Cause and Effect

HUMAN CARELESSNESS

Lee Shippey asks What Do You Think?

Kenneth W. Kearney, who died in Independence last week, will long be remembered as one of the most brilliant and picturesque personalities in Sierra Madre in recent decades.

His defense of poor old Miss Davis, who almost starved herself in order to feed stray dogs and cats, is often recalled by old timers, and so is the case in which the complaint, signed by a man, accused a widow of having "vilified, maligned and traduced" him. Fixing the complaint with a piercing stare, Ken demanded:

"Why, and where, did Mrs. Blank traduce you?"

Throwing a terrified glance at his wife, the complainant cried:

"Oh, no, she never done nothin' like that! Never!"

"Yet in this complaint you swore that she did," said Ken.

"But I just done what they told me to do, not knowin' what it meant."

Verdict for defendant.

On top of all that, Ken was lovable and loyal beyond all the calls of true friendship. When any friend needed him, Ken was right there. He had his weaknesses, as who has not? But there was only one Ken Kearney, and all of us who enjoyed his friendship will always be glad we had that privilege.

I GIVE UP. For years I've been arguing that the one and only way to bring about comparative purity in politics would be to adopt the English system of limiting the amounts which may be spent in election campaigns to a figure within the reach of average citizens. In England if a multi-millionaire and a laboring man are rival candidates for the House of Commons, each is limited to campaign expenses of 500 pounds, or about $1250. Furthermore, no committee, club or person may spend more in behalf of either candidate. That prevents money from deciding elections and prevents oil, gas, brewery, gambling or other interests from putting candidates under obligations with large contributions of money or free billboards or other devious secret assistance.

Five years ago my arguments were favorably commented on by the Christian Science Monitor, the New Republic and several noted commentators; after which professors and students of political science in 28 different states wrote for copies of my "Declaration of Independence From Graft," which thousands of persons signed.

Everyone who investigates knows that often it costs four more times the salary the job pays to elect even an assemblyman and often vastly more to elect congressmen, senators and governors. It is also true that nearly all the big contributors to campaign funds are persons, or corporations, with axes to grind. Thus an average man cannot afford to run for state or national office unless he is rich or is backed by some corporation or union with big money. That bars average citizens who do not want such backing, and are not rich from competition. And that is not democracy.

Well, last week a congressional committee which has been studying campaign expenses made its report, and how did it treat my idea? It recommended no limit whatever on presidential campaign expenses and the raising of the impalpable and easily evaded limits on campaigns for other national offices.

SIMPLE FACT is that professional politicians of both parties would rather cut off their noses than cut off any lush source of revenue, no matter how demoralizing it is. As I think every political club should be laboring for strict limitation of campaign expenses, for the good of our nation, that fact disgusts me so that I'm going to spend my few dimes on something else, unless and until I can support a reform movement. The committee recommends that an individual may give as much as $15,000—or $30,000 for man and wife, and so on. None of my friends can give that much, but there are plenty of persons with axes to grind who can.

Watch on the Potomac

By Robert G. Spivack

WASHINGTON — THE LITTLE THINGS IN LIFE—I received a letter from a friend in Chicago recently who reads this column pretty regularly.

"Listen, pal," he wrote, "we all know that Washington thinks it's the center of the universe and that all the woes of the world are on its shoulders. But we out here have our problems, too. They may not be world-shaking, but to us they seem awfully important. I'm not suggesting that you should write about them, but just remember that they exist."

My old buddy, of course, is 100 per cent right. The worst thing that happens to Washington correspondents is their tendency to think alike, interview each other and forget that there is a great big world outside the nation's capital. It's this tendency to forget that accounts, I believe, for the woeful record of political forecasting Washington newsmen have rung up in the last few years.

Anyhow here are some little items, chit-chat, and utterly unimportant tidbits that have come across my desk recently.

Item 1. More men than women suffer from nervous tension. A survey of tension symptoms was recently made by a group of scientists. They found that men drank more coffee, imbibed more liquor, smoked more cigarettes. Women gripe more, complain about the service in restaurants and department stores, but are usually happier and more relaxed than their male counterparts.

Item 2. Hotels are having a hard time because of prosperity. Managers of the leading hosteleries report they are flooded by complaints because rooms are usually not available when promised. Many guests have such a good time in Chicago, Los Angeles and even staid old Boston they don't leave when

There are two ministers in Congress, Merwin Coad, an Iowa Democrat, and Adam Clayton Powell, a New York Democrat.

The senior Democrat in Congress is Speaker Sam Rayburn and the senior Republican is Rep. Daniel A. Reed of upstate New York.

Letters to the Editor

BATTLE FOR POINTS?

Dear Editor:

What is the purpose of Little League Baseball? Is it a battle for points? Or a healthy, happy introduction of boys to one of our most popular sports?

It seems to me every effort should be made to encourage participation in Little League. After all this is only the beginning of baseball for these boys and the encouragement they receive can influence their interest in it through junior and senior high school and even college.

I hear other people complaining about only the favored ones playing all of the time while others sit on the bench. I'd like to see everyone on the team play every game. Win or lose, good or bad they would get the practice and experience they need. It is very bad for morale when they faithfully attend every game and every practice but still are not permitted to play.

Now that I have voiced my complaint I would like to add a word of praise and thanks to the many people, mostly fathers, who give their free time to make such things as little league possible.

It is with the valuable assistance of Sunday School, Boy Scouts, YMCA and other such activities that we have been able to raise our boys with a minimum of trouble and a great deal of pleasure.

Sincerely,
MARY MORRIS

MINOR LEAGUE REPLIES

Dear Sir:

This is a reply to the letter published last week about the conduct of Minor League baseball—the main contention being that all boys are not permitted to play.

With this contention there can be no argument — all boys don't get a chance to play. By way of explanation, not justification, the following points are offered. Although the original plan was to limit the number of boys on each squad to 15, following try-outs in which each was impartially scored on coordination, etc., this was abandoned in favor of giving all boys (who had tried out) membership on a squad.

Thus each squad was given from three to four additional boys, making each consist of from 18 to 20. Had only two more parents shown enough interest and willingness to give from six to 10 hours a week, another squad could have been formed, the original plan could have been followed, and the squads would not be over-manned as they are.

In reference to the emphasis on competition, with this, too, there can be no argument. The main responsibility of every coach, in fairness to the boys themselves, is to field the best possible team; it doesn't seem either realistic or fair to do otherwise than let the baseball ability of each be the only yardstick.

True, the 9 and 10-year-olds may not play much this year, but they also have two to three years yet to compete. As for the chance to learn there are the weekly practices plus the Baseball School on Saturdays.

The games should not be confused with practice sessions. There are "practice games" held, i.e. unofficial games, in which these younger boys are practically the only ones playing. Perhaps more such games should be arranged, but here again parent interest is the real solution, we feel. See that your youngster attends all the practice sessions; get out and give him some practice yourself.

Respectfully,
Managers, coaches and Committee
Sierra Madre Minor League.

New officers of St. Rita's Guild were installed last week at the closing luncheon meeting of the season.

Father Thomas O'Malley, pastor of St. Rita's Church, expressed his appreciation for the help received from the out-going officers and guild members. Following the reading of a resume of the guild-sponsored activities during the past year by Mrs. Roy Ramsell, Father O'Malley briefly outlined the duties of each office as the incoming officer was installed.

Mrs. William R. Sidenfaden was installed as Guild president succeeding Mrs. Andrew Papac.

The Kulinery Kettle . . .

Barbecued Lamb Beats High Cost of Spare Ribs

By Toni Maurin

Debb Watts 445 E. Highland, offered this first recipe as his defense against the high price of spare ribs. I was amazed at the amount of meat he buys per person, but he assured me that he rarely had any left over.

BARBEQUED LAMB BREAST
Place two pounds of lamb breast per person in a large roasting pan and bake in a 225°F. oven for two hours to render excess fat from meat. Cool until ready to bar-b-que.

BAR-B-QUE SAUCE

The following ingredients would be ample for a two-pound serving and should be regulated according to the amount of meat used. Two pounds is a generous serving for one person.

- 1/2 tsp. or pinch of ginger, dry mustard and celery seed
- 1 tsp. Hungarian hot paprika
- 1/2 tsp. celery salt
- 1 medium onion
- 1/2 large can tomatoes
- 3 or 4 whole green or Spanish stuffed olives.
- 1/2 tsp. accent
- 1/2 tsp. garlic salt
- 1/2 green pepper with seeds and core
- 1/2 can tomato sauce

Dice onion and green pepper until very fine and simmer in a tightly covered pot with a little water and spices for 10 or 15 minutes until transparent.

Add 1/2 can tomatoes broken fine and tomato sauce and cook uncovered over a low flame until it begins to thicken to the texture of ketchup (about one hour). Then add olives minced very fine and continue to simmer until it is a little thicker.

Put drained ribs in a large cake or roasting pan and pour sauce over them until they are well coated. Allow to marinate until about 1 1/2 hours before eating. Barbecue them slowly on a charcoal fire, brushing with sauce remaining in pan as they cook. Any excess sauce can be served at the table in a dish.

Mr. Watts had a difficult time giving me this recipe as he rarely measures anything. He says before creating a new dish he will go through his many cook books and read all he can find on the particular dish and then he puts them all away and starts with his own creation.

The following recipe is one that he often serves with the lamb breast and it certainly hit the spot with me.

ESCALLOPED OYSTERS (Serves 6)

Take one pint of Pacific oysters and snip into small pieces with kitchen scissors. Retain juice.

In the bottom of a glass casserole or bread shaped pan sprinkle about 1/2 dozen hand-crushed soda crackers. Put layer of oysters with juice to cover. Then soda cracker, then oysters. Continue layering until all the oysters are used, topping with a slightly heavier layer of soda crackers. Sprinkle accent on top of casserole generously. Then pour in milk till level with top. Allow all milk to absorb and then slice 1/4 lb. of butter and place over top. Add milk again and place on a cookie sheet on a 300°F. oven for one hour. Just before serving, turn oven as high as it will go and watch casserole carefully until golden brown. Remove and serve immediately.

Take your problems to Church this week

— millions leave them there!

Ministers of churches, as a group, are better informed than those who would belittle their work or their ability. There are many in the clergy who have given up promising careers in other fields of endeavor, others who have sacrificed lucrative positions to become ministers. Of course they do not consider their move a sacrifice but rather a promising opportunity to serve their fellow men. And they do just that. Preaching is only one of the services they render. Many a person has been helped through counsel offered by a minister. There are many whose lives have been salvaged by clergymen.

Anyone can find, with a little searching, a minister and church to his or her liking and a church that meets and fills an individual need in their lives.

Those who are not making use of some church by regular attendance are missing out on something of inestimable value.

With the hope that it will, in some measure, foster and help sustain that which is good in family and community life, this feature is sponsored by the business firms and organizations whose names appear in this space.

Playhouse Comedy Is Light, Funny

By Edward Lloyd Voorhees

"A Night With the President," a highly amusing farce-comedy is the new piece which opened at the Pasadena Playhouse on Thursday evening, written by John Green of Long Beach and ably directed by his actress-wife, Mary Green.

The more than competent cast includes such well-known Playhouse favorites as Oliver Brickett, in a bibulous role; Maudie Priskett as a modern necromancer of a doting mother; Louise Lorimer as an ex-burlesque queen disguised as something else; Will Thompson as "Chris"—a persuasive salesman on his night off in Chicago; his highly smooth and experienced girlfriend, "Monica," played by Karen Norris; Ruth Vaughn as "Gwinn," the secretary-dragoness of the house-prisoner movie star, "Dena Ballard," and Hal Torrey who, with three other secret service men, guards "the President" (of the U.S.—yes!) on the hotel floor above the suite of "Dena Ballard," in which the whole action takes place, during the hours of a mild summer evening.

Dena Ballard is in Chicago to attend the premier of her latest movie the next day. She is the reigning idol of "pictures"—which always have portrayed her in the role of an innocent young girl, as she, in fact, is. Since this fact also is the working capital of her manager, he employs a staff of three to keep a way romance—and over-weight.

Consequently, she desires with all her heart and waking hours that which leads to both. Played by the attractive and vivacious Gigi Perreau, who is now only 16 and played her first movie role at age 2 (as the infant "Eve Curie" in "Madame Curie"), Dena Ballard makes a gala evening for everybody, on stage and off—including his excellency, Miss Perreau's most recent film role was in "The Man in the Grey Flannel Suit," her next will be in "Big Smoke," soon to be released.

The program notes of "A Night With the President" seems to indicate that this is the new Golden Age for actors—because of the present four fold field of stage-screen-radio-television which requires them. From beginning student to veteran, 13 of the cast of 15 present acting "credits."

Individuals and groups who enjoy light entertainment containing some casual nuggets on the facts and foibles of life and human nature will find both in the current Playhouse production during the next three or four weeks.

J. Z. Lorbers Visit in Ranch

The Jerome Z. Lorbers of New York City enjoyed a week's visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Lifton, 1345 Leonard, and their children, Michael, Paul and Sarah Ellen. It was a happy time for all since they had not seen each other in six years.

Sometimes a workman loses his job on account of illness—the boss gets sick of him.

Pools Can Be Dangerous; To Learn to Swim Is Not Enough

Swimming Specialist Urges All Families
 To Learn Water Safety to Protect Themselves as Well as Others

If you own a swimming pool or use a neighbor's pool, your first thoughts should be—Am I and my family safe in the water? Do we know what to do to prevent an accident in the pool? Can we help ourselves and others whose lives may be in danger? If you have not had adequate training in water safety, you are taking chances when you swim. You may suddenly find yourself in a helpless situation where you need to save yourself or go to the aid of another person.

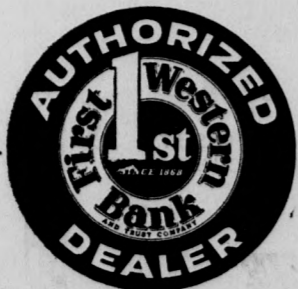

TO LEARN WATER SAFETY IS A MUST whether you are young or old. This is the advice of DR. PAUL GERRISH, who has been teaching SWIMMING AND WATER SAFETY for the past 32 years. He invites you to visit the GERRISH SWIM SCHOOL at 3001 E. FOOT HILL BLVD., PASADENA, for yourself and see both little children and adults learning how to REALLY BE SAFE IN THE WATER or you may phone SY. 3-3001 for further information.

Methodists Plan Bible School June 17-June 28

The Sierra Madre Methodist Church is making final plans for the Vacation Bible School to be held the first two weeks following school, June 17 through June 28, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

The time will be divided between a study period, devotional, outdoor activities and crafts.

The subject for discussion this year is "Friends—Both at Home and Abroad." Since the discussions are non-sectarian, all children in the area ranging in age from four years through sixth grade in school are invited.

Mrs. Julia Cairncross is the director of the school, with Mrs. Anne Stanaway doing the publicity. Mrs. Barbara Steed and Mrs. Margaret Hinshaw will serve as registrars and Mrs. Doris Cline will be refreshment chairman.

A nursery is open for the small children of parents working with the school. Those in charge are Mrs. Luce Heller, Mrs. Joyce Zuck, Mrs. Roselyn Pryor, Mrs. Francis Andrews and Mrs. Opal Kordill.

Mrs. Marjorie Sawyer will be in charge of the kindergarten department. She will be assisted by Mrs. Betsy Wade and Mrs. Dee Dittmar. Mrs. Margaret Bromley will be superintendent of the primary department with Mrs. Jacklyn Herbon playing the piano and Mrs. Marvina Matthews assisting with the singing.

The first grade will be taught by Mrs. June Fleming and Mrs. Dorothy Curley, the second grade by Mrs. Martha Bray and Mrs. Francis Decker, and the third grade by Mrs. Marguerite Bowman and Mrs. Artie Sundeen.

The junior department will have Mrs. Ruth Hunsicker as superintendent, with Mrs. Jane Bevington playing the piano and Mrs. Virginia McKibbin as crafts director. Mrs. Shirley Peasley will teach the fourth grade and Mrs. Nadir Barnes will teach both the fifth and sixth grades.

There will be a family night program at the church on Thursday night, June 27, for both the parents and friends. The school will close with a picnic on Friday, June 28.

LUTHERAN SERVICES

The last major festival of the Christian church year, the Festival of the Holy Trinity, will be observed by the members of Faith Lutheran Church in their Sunday morning service at 10:30. The chapel is at 835 Hastings Ranch Drive.

You'll never find a roadhouse along the straight and narrow path.

Dedication Service Set By Trinity

Sunday afternoon, June 16, at 4 o'clock a special Service of Dedication will be held in the Chapel of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Hastings Ranch.

The service will dedicate the new Christian Education Building, completed Feb. 1 of this year. The building is of cinder block construction, featuring seven spacious classrooms and a cradle room for the care of infants and small children during worship services.

Warm and cheerful with bright colors and contemporary decor, the facilities have been provided to meet a growing enrollment in the Trinity Presbyterian Church School.

Built at a cost of $85,000, the building, since its completion, has been enhanced with the installation of $4,500 worth of movable cabinets made of mahogany to match the mahogany slab doors of the classrooms.

The Church School uses the building on Sundays, the Boy Scouts use two of the rooms on a weekday, and three of the rooms are used daily by the Hastings Ranch Nursery School for pre-school children. The community is invited to attend the service of dedication and to inspect the new facilities. Refreshments will be served following the service.

Rabbi Steckel To Continue Talk On Code of Laws

Rabbi Charles W. Steckel will continue speaking on "The Ethics of the Fathers, Part II," at the Friday evening services, June 14 at 8:30 p.m., at Temple Beth Israel, 212 N. Lima.

These ethics or sayings are most widely known of all the 63 Tractates of the Mishna, which is the code of laws governing Jewish life. The sayings are unique in character and consists for the most part of maxims, being the expression of wisdom and experiences of some 60 rabbis, extending over a period of nearly 500 years, from about 3 B.C.E. to 200 of the Common Era.

Also, Harvey Knell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Knell, Arcadia, will be honored during the services. Mr. and Mrs. Knell will be the hosts at the Oneg Shabbath following. Cantor Salo Blumenthal will assist and chant the hymns and prayers.

Young People To Lead Service At Congregational

The young people of the Congregational Church will lead the services of worship and bring the message this Sunday, June 16th.

At the 9:30 service, young people from Pioneer Fellowship, the 7th and 8th grade group, will conduct the service, while at 11 o'clock, Pilgrim Fellowship, the high school youth group, will be in charge.

The sermon at both services will be based on the Beatitudes, and will be given by three graduating seniors, Dona Mihalovic, Wayne Thomas and Mick McCormack. The Pilgrim Fellowship choir will sing Rieger's arrangement of "Beautiful Saviour" at both 9:30 and 11:00 o'clock.

Life With Father Is Sermon Theme

Why do we call God our "Father" instead of calling Him "Mother"?

This will be one of the questions discussed this coming Sunday morning at 9:30 when Dr. Chilton McPheeters preaches on "Life With Father," at the Sierra Madre Methodist Church.

Special recognition will be given to the oldest father in the congregation, the youngest father, the newest father and the father with the most children.

This Sunday the summer schedule will start at the church. The worship hour will be moved to 9:30 with the Sunday School continuing at the same time. Dr. McPheeters will leave Monday of next week to attend the 107th session of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of The Methodist Church on the campus of the University of Redlands.

Conference speaker this year is Dr. George Arthur Buttrick, currently preacher at the university and Plummer professor of Christian morals at Harvard University. Ernest Phillips will accompany Dr. McPheeters as the lay delegate from Sierra Madre.

Bethany Plans Lecture Series

Headlining the final week of preparation for Vacation Bible School at Bethany Church was a luncheon given Wednesday, June 12, for the school's teachers and helpers. Featured speaker was Larry Ward, an associate editor of "Christianity Today" and now affiliated with Gospel Light Press.

Bethany's Vacation Bible School starts next Monday, June 17, and will run until the 28th.

For the first time Bethany will be instituting classes for adults in conjunction with Vacation Bible School. These will consist of a series of lectures and movies on the "Jewish Culture of the Day of Christ," to be taught by Haskell Stone, who comes from an Orthodox Jewish background, as well as a class in "Christianity and the Modern Home," highlighted by such speakers as Elizabeth Kenny, child-care specialist; Dr. Lars I. Granberg, psychologist and dean of students at Fuller Theological Seminary; and Berea St. John, prominent social worker and counselor.

The adult class will be held nightly at 7:30 from June 17 to 28.

Faith Lutheran To Start Bible Class June 17

During the next two weeks, June 17 to 28, the annual Children's Vacation Bible School will be conducted at Faith Lutheran Chapel, 835 Hastings Ranch Drive. It will mark the fifth consecutive year that the five-year old congregation has undertaken this venture.

Sessions will be conducted each school-day morning from 9:00 to 11:30. Eligible to attend are all children enrolled in Faith Lutheran's Sunday School, and also children above kindergarten age who are not enrolled in a Sunday school.

The theme of the school this year will be "Our Beautiful Savior." Worksheets, handcrafts and films will be used each day. During the daily sessions, the pastor will teach the confirmation preparation class, which will continue its weekly meetings again after the summer holidays.

"Why Prayers Are Answered" will be the subject of the Sunday sermon June 16 at 11 a.m. by Dr. Ethel Barnhart, at the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science.

Final Rites Held For W. W. Davis, Resident 7 Years

Funeral services for William Wayne Davis, 52 E. Highland, were held Saturday at the Pasadena Mausoleum. Mr. Davis, a resident of Sierra Madre for the past seven years, died June 6 following a long illness.
A native of Fredricksburg, Md., Mr. Davis moved to California in 1912. He was a member of the Masons.
He is survived by two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Dixie Aeron, Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Louise Boyle, Pasadena. The Rippe Mortuary Chapel was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Sewell Clark Receives Diploma

Mrs. Sewell (Sally) Clark will participate in the 10th annual Commencement of Los Angeles State College of Applied Arts and Sciences tomorrow in the Hollywood Bowl at 4 p.m.
She has been named one of the high honor students. Later this month, Mrs. Clark will make a trip to Missouri to visit relatives in Kansas City and Joplin.

Ancient Issue

Pasadena for secondary education but retains them for primary, voted not to annex its primary system to Pasadena. Temple City also voted to withdraw from the Pasadena junior high school district.

OVER THE years as the question has risen — and fallen, the general response to unifying with Pasadena has been, "No — let Sierra Madre retain its identity."
Tom Schwartz, businessman and former mayor, said, "I would rather pay a higher tax rate in order that we retain the control and the independence of our own schools. I told Mr. Dewar that — last year."
Dr. Milton Valois, outgoing president of the School Board, outlined his feelings a year ago that it was "doubtful that Sierra Madre would gain anything and might stand the chance of losing everything."

Echoing him, Mrs. Charles Fretz, PTA president, said that she favored any possible saving but not at the cost of good schools.
"Those of us who have lived here a long time do not favor such a move, but I am willing to listen to any propositions put forward."

MRS. NETTIE JACOBS, School Board member who studied Mr. Dewar's proposals last year, said, "Mr. Dewar's idea was rejected not because it was not worthy of further study, but because, at the time it was suggested it would have necessitated a very hasty decision."
"I feel that the townspeople should have ample opportunity to discuss the advantages and disadvantages of annexation before it might ever reach the balloting stage."

"Tax-wise it may seem advantageous, but there are other concerns. I would want to be sure that we would be more than compensated by over-all school benefits if we took this step."

EVERETTS HOME AGAIN
Capt. and Mrs. Ernest G. Everett, 479 Ramona, just returned home following a 16-day cruise from New York to the West Indies. The Everetts made the trip on the new liner, the Matsonia.

VIEWSBy Toni Maurin
SYcamore 7-9634

We come again to Dad's special day, the one day of the year when he is king. What fun it is to be able to show him—and we are not restricted to one day, you know—how much we love him. I don't mean, by that, that we should rush out and buy him a present with the bill following the next month. I mean, by showing him by doing for him in the many countless ways that we can the little things that would make his burden a little lighter.

Show him that the things he has been teaching us all of these years has sunk in, that we can be what he hoped we might when we were first laid in his arms. Our fathers give us so very much of themselves in word and deed and all they ask is that they might do better for us than they have had in their life.

I FOUND out this week that Mr. Keirn Zebb of 1434 Old House Road left on the 29th of last month for a three-week business trip to Europe. He is acting as aeronautical consultant for the National Aeronautics Research Institute in Amsterdam, in the Netherlands. He also is acting as a representative of the Cooperative Wind Tunnel operated by Cal-Tech. While he is there he is taking an extra week vacation to visit in the Alps.

MR. AND MRS. John F. Begin Jr. of 1185 Sierra Madre Villa became parents for the second time on May 30. They had a 7-pound, 13-ounce baby boy born at St. Luke Hospital. He was named Scott Anthony. They have a 22-month-old daughter named Cassandra.

THE J. A. GUTIERREZ family of 3265 Fairpoint has good reason to be happy this week. Firstly, their daughter, Gracia, who will be a senior at Mayfield next year, has just been elected student body president for the coming year. Their son, Gabriel, has returned home from Santa Clara College and another daughter, Gloria, is expected home soon from the North where she is also attending college.

I HAVE just learned that Mr. and Mrs. George Hobart Woodruff Jr. have returned with their new son and are staying at Mrs. Woodruff's mother's home, Mrs. John Pascoe in Sierra Madre, while Mrs. Pascoe goes East on a trip. Mrs. Woodruff is the former Flo-Ree Pascoe.

MR. AND MRS. William Sandberg have moved into their new home at 1570 Old House Road. They have two sons, Brian, 6, and Brent, 8 months. They moved from Rida Street in Pasadena. Mr. Sandberg has his own business, the Sandberg Co., which handles office equipment.

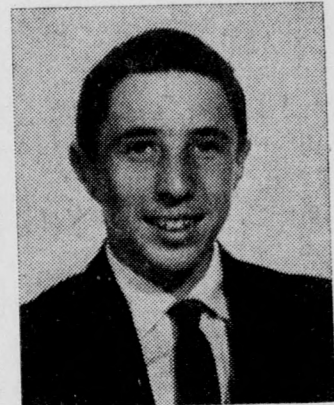

MR. AND MRS. H. M. Bucher of 3283 Mesa Lo Lane just returned last week from a wonderful European trip. They left here March 28 and flew to Stuttgart, Germany, where they picked up a little Mercedes-Benz four-door sedan. From there they drove to Rotherberg and spent 10 days enjoying the countryside, then to Munich for a week, Vienna for a week, Coblenz for a week and on to Luxembourg for two weeks. From Luxembourg they were able to tour the border towns of France and Belgium and be back by nightfall. Then they went on to Holland and toured around the back country from their base in Arnhem. They had a wonderful, relaxing time. Mrs. Bucher was able to do a little sketching and Mr. Bucher was able to completely relax without pushing on to the next sight. They flew home the polar route from Copenhagen and expect their little car to come by boat in the near future.

STEVE DORSEY, son of Dr. and Mrs. Clete Dorsey of 3390 Fairpoint, celebrated his ninth birthday with a dinner, theater and slumber (?) party. The guests included Bobby Anderson, Ken Koch and Paul Maurin.

Michael Goldberg Receives
Scouting's Highest Award

Michael G. Goldberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Goldberg, 590 Ramona, received the highest award given in Boy Scouting, the Eagle Award.

Michael, a 14-year-old student at Marshall and a member of Troop 373, was presented the award in a Knights of Dunamis ceremony June 3. He will spend the summer in Birmingham, England, at the International Boy Scout Jamboree.

This is the last day of school or should I say the last day of school. Well, at any rate no more home-work, no more books, no more teacher's dirty looks—for a while at least. I just hope everyone had a REAL great summer.

Last Friday night the Senior Class Party at Wilson was held. Dinner was served from 7 o'clock on and games and dancing continued until midnight.

Graduation exercises were held today in the auditorium making the class of '57 the first to graduate in the new auditorium. I know that the 10th graders will enjoy their next two years at PHS.

PHS elections of officers who will serve during the fall term were held Friday. They are: president, Dick Helgeson; vice president, Danny Armstrong; secretary, Ann Burdick; treasurer, Otis Duke; pep, Susie Cowden; social affairs, Gaylen McIntyre; elections commissioner, Kathy Ransom; clubs, Kathy Dinwiddie; girls league, Sue Grant, boys league, Don Southerland; assemblies, Jennie Retting; publicity, Susie Ashcraft. Congratulations, kids.

SOME of the Mardi Gras funmakers were Chris Crawford, Toddy Draeger, Bobby Olds, Sara Bolar, Mike Dan-chik, Andy Vingoe, Paul Kaponya, John Ogren Kiera Pratt, Phronsie Thompson, Laurelee Strieter, Larry and Garry Boskovich, July Mortensen, Steve Samerjian, Judy Gibson, Bob Beecher, Sherry Jones, Judy MacLain, Marilyn Jackson, Diana Duke, Carol Patterson, Carol Rees, Joan Windish, Cynthia Ellet, Mike Tibbs, Judy Moreli, Chuck Hix, Judy Haymaker, Jerry Moulder, Bob Zook, Mel Hein, Lillian Guttman, Dee Jay Cole, yours truly and many, many others.

The king and queen of the dance were Bill Watts and Patricia Art.

Today was the big day! All the seniors received their precious diplomas and the student body members were given their annuals. There was surely a lot of activity, with everyone running around to get autographs in their annuals, saying goodbye to their friends and wishing each other happy vacations.

LAST FRIDAY'S assembly saw the new officers taking over and the old officers retiring. Mr. Kellner, Miss Dankers and Dr. Wilson swore in the new officers.

SENIOR CLASS PARTY! What a wonderful ball it was! All the kids had fun eating, dancing, playing ping pong, bingo and other games. They also had their pictures taken and "fortunes" told. Everything was free, except the pictures, which cost 25 cents. The food was delicious: ham, turkey and cheese sandwiches, and the usual trimmings of olives, pickles, etc., and, of course, Pepsi and cake. The cake was cut up in pieces with a "57" on each. Yes, they really had all the trimmings. All of us felt it was by far the best affair of the year.

Stars Take Over First Place With Perfect Record

By Charles Ayres

It was "whole hog or none" for the teams of the American division of the Hastings Little League last week as the Braves, Reds and Yankees won two games each and the Dodgers, Indians and Tigers dropped two.

Meanwhile, in the National division, defeat came to John Senour's Beavers and the Stars have taken over undisputed first place with an unblemished record.

Two tie games, between the Reds and Braves and the Reds and Yankees, will have to be resolved before the first half champion can be crowned. The first half race will have ended by the time this reaches print and providing the Braves and Reds maintain their present pace the playoff of their 1-1 tie in the first game of the year will be the decider.

BRAVES hurlers continued their phenomenal record as Phil Olwin pitched his second no-hit game in swamping the Indians 24-0, and Jay Frontino's four-hit effort and home run turned back the Dodgers, 6-2.

Mike Ayres' steady pitching and home run led the Reds to a 9-3 win over the Indians, but the Reds had to come from behind to overtake the Tigers for a hard-earned 6-4 win.

But Winterbottom finally found a winning formula as his Yankees cleaned the Ti-

The Scoreboard . . .

Indians Pull Season's Only Triple Play in First Win

JUNE 5 DODGERS 12—RED SOX 4

Nine runs by the Dodgers in the third inning proved too much for the Red Sox to overcome, although they came back in their half of the third to score three runs on three walks and a double.

Barry was replaced by Brett as pitcher for the Sox in this inning and allowed but three hits to hold the Dodgers to two more runs. Dennis Over relieved Neutel in the fourth for the Dodgers and scored six strikeouts in three innings. The game was marked by some good infield play on both sides. Dodgers—12 runs, 8 hits, 2 errors; Red Sox—4 runs, 2 hits, 5 errors.

INDIANS 11—ORIOLES 4

The Indians finally left the goose-egg column with their first victory of the season last Thursday. In addition to tight pitching by Karl Abbe and Rich Schoen, each pitching three innings, the Indians had by far their best game at the plate, getting 10 hits.

Three Oriole pitchers—Matheson, Chavarria and Spencer—tried to stem the Indian tide. The Indians pulled the first triple play of the season when, in the second, the Orioles had Coit on second, Morant on first, and Perry Rickard at bat. Rickard popped up to McDonough at second, who tagged Coit and fired to first to catch Morant off base. Real heads-up ball! Orioles—4 runs, 3 hits, 4 errors; Indians—11 runs, 10 hits, 1 error.

BRAVES 12—YANKS 4

No one seems able to knock the Braves out of the undefeated column, including the third-position Yanks. The Braves were hotter than the proverbial firecracker at the plate, hitting nearly everything Mike Menne and Bud Burke threw at them for a total of 12 hits. The Yanks got only four hits off Dave Foxton who pitched the full six innings.

Next week's schedule: June 18—Orioles vs. Dodgers; June 19—Indians vs. Yanks; June 20—Red Sox vs. Braves.

An exclusive feature of the SERVEL GAS Refrigerator!

The only refrigerator that makes ice cubes automatically is the Servel Gas Ice-Maker Refrigerator. You can reach in any time and take a handful or dozens of ice cubes. The Ice-Maker replaces them automatically. You have no trays to fill or spill . . . none to empty or forget to re-fill!

Servel's second exclusive feature is silent Gas operation. A tiny Gas flame makes ice and cold . . . takes the place of a motor and moving parts.

Servel's third exclusive feature is a ten-year warranty . . . twice the warranty offered by any other refrigerator. Why take less? See a demonstration today at your Servel Gas Refrigerator dealer or Gas Company.

GAS gives you silent, motorless, trouble-free refrigeration!

Julie Pyle Exchanges Vows With Ronald King Perry

Sergis Alberts
St. Edmunds Episcopal Church in San Marino was decorated with pink and white peonies when Julie Pyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pyle, 1432 Old House Road, exchanged nuptial vows with Ronald King Perry, son of Mrs. Robert L. Perry of Altadena and the late Mr. Perry, June 8. The Reverend Aaron Driver officiated.

Jolly Givens, wore pale pink sheath frocks with a cummerbund and back detail of deep rose taffeta. They carried bouquets of pale pink water lilies.

Lieutenant John C. Perry came from Minneapolis to serve his brother as best man. The guests were seated by John J. Zacher and Lieutenants Thomas Dunton, E. R. Hagood, C. E. Freeman and Ralph Heckman.

The mother of the bride was attired in a lilac chiffon sheath dress with matching hat.

The mother of the groom was gowned in a champagne lace ensemble and wore a cymidium corsage.

The bride attended Texas Christian University at Ft. Worth and the University of Southern California where she was pledged Delta Gamma. She is an accomplished equestrian and owns and shows gaited horses.

The groom is a First Lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps and is stationed at Camp Pendleton. He attended the University of California at Los Angeles and Los Angeles State College where he received his B.A. degree with honors.

Following the ceremonies, a reception was held at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel Pool Terrace. A pink ribbon cloth covered the main supper table and the guests danced to the music of Danny Stewart and his orchestra.

The couple are enjoying a honeymoon in the Hawaiian Islands. On their return they will reside near Camp Pendleton until next February when Lt. Perry will be separated from the Corps.

Paul Wolf, former Olympic and National Swimming Champion and U. S. swimming coach says, "Teach Children to Swim if there's a pool in your neighborhood. More than 50,000 Southern California Pools mean that danger of drowning is greater than last year when 20 children lost their lives in private pools." Paul presides over the Olympic Swim School at 30 N. Sierra Madre Blvd. in Pasadena. If you are planning a vacation near water or have a youngster who can't swim, Paul's your man. For information on classes call SY 3-2704 or SY 2-0430 or stop in at the pool and see Paul in person.

You simply can't miss FORD'S sculptured-in-steel profile because you see it so often!

Biggest family on the American highway today—and small wonder! Nearly half of all station wagons touring "Ford Country" are Fords. The long, low lines of the sleek beauty above identify just one of five distinguished models for '57. And below—you're ready for rain or shine with the convertible chosen by one out of every three "top downers." The miles grow shorter and mountains level out when Ford travels you there. Best of all, it's like adding to the vacation budget when you take advantage of Ford's low, low prices.

Your Health . . .

Take Sunshine in Proper Dosage; You're the Doctor

(Presented as a public service by the Foothill Branch of the Los Angeles County Medical Association)

Now that vacation time is here, millions of us will head for recreation spots to rest, relax and get plenty of sunshine. Just what amounts to plenty of sunshine, however, is something that many of us will not discover until we have had too much.

The sun's rays are powerful medicine, and like all medicines, should be taken in proper amounts. Too much exposure can produce serious ill effects.

Sunburn of varying degree has been experienced by most people. But if exposure is continued and excessive, sunburn can result in chills and fever, nausea, heat exhaustion and heat stroke. Heat stroke, or sunstroke, develops because the body's built-in temperature controls have been jammed by too much applied heat and, instead of increased sweating, there is no perspiration. The skin becomes hot and dry. This could be fatal unless cooling measures are soon applied.

CERTAIN susceptible persons may develop skin cancers when repeatedly exposed to sunlight. Others who are allergic to the sun's rays may develop hives.

The invisible, ultra-violet rays of the sun have little penetrating power compared with their close relative, the x-rays. They are absorbed by the skin and do not penetrate much below its surface. They do, however, penetrate sufficiently to activate the cells which form the outer layer of our skin. Increased skin cell activity is the body's way of defending itself against sunlight. It manufactures these cells and sends them to the surface to form the so-called "horny layer" of skin in an attempt to thicken the outside layer so that it can shut off the sun's rays. This is what occurs when we tan. Tanning, then, is not so much a coloration of the skin as it is an increase in the thickness of dead skin cells.

THE FACT that the sun's rays do not penetrate beyond the skin does not prevent them from affecting us internally. The generative activity which is created in the skin cells produces certain by-products which are absorbed into the blood stream. Ordinarily, the effect is good. But there are some individuals who are made ill by too much sunshine as a result of these by-products. Some diseases are made worse by them.

The uncomfortable or even serious results of too much sunshine are very much in the minority. In proper dosage the sun provides a great source of energy which increases the sense of well-being and helps to relax the body as well as to increase mental activity. It stimulates general body metabolism, thus increasing the appetite, and it also is said to increase resistance to infection. But there is one thing to remember. In this case, you are the doctor. Prescribe it in moderation.
